Background	NCG is one of the largest education, skills training and employability organisations in the UK with an annual turnover of £180 million. Operating throughout the UK, NCG currently works with over 95,000 learners and 22,000 companies per annum. We have the second largest SFA contract in the UK and have the largest EFA contract in England. We are one of the largest providers in the UK with over 45 locations.
Objective	We have significant experience and expertise in supporting and delivering learning provision to offenders and ex-offenders. Our experience of the justice sector can be evidenced through the successful delivery of contracts including: • a prime contractor for the Offender Learning and Support Service (OLASS); • ESF provision in custody and the community; • delivery of NVQs in Custodial care for Prison Officers; • leading Project Daedalus at HMYOI Feltham to reduce re-offending rates; • delivering workforce development solutions for staff within the Crown Prosecution Service; and • through the Work Programme supporting prison leavers on day one of release.
Interests	As a successful prime contractor and subcontractor for a variety of national programmes including the Work Programme, we are looking to develop relationships with other prime providers and sub contractors for the successful implementation of this programme. Services: • an impressive track record of programme management and delivery with local level, tailored face-to-face services, access to skills development including work placements, employability – soft and vocational training while in custody; • consistent engagement over time and multi-agency working with offenders to achieve outcomes and support joined up service delivery; • 1:1 mentoring, specialist intervention activities and wrap-around support services for offenders which is a key factor to reducing barriers;

	• specific knowledge and experience with young people, especially those not in employment, education or training – NEETS; • employer engagement services operating in every region of England; • access to innovative E Learning solutions. NCG is an established prime contractor with Work Programme and SFA/ESF contracts, which use complex, integrated supply chains to deliver high volume, regional, Payment-by-Results social programmes. As an experienced prime contractor, we realise that the best approach to achieve real outcomes and quality customer service, is by working with a network of partners. Delivery is inclusive, localised and supportive of small community, voluntary and third sector providers who share our mission, those able to deliver specialist and ad hoc interventions and services. Developing an effective employment and skills service is central to the success of the NOMS CFO agenda. At the heart of our offer is a focus on meeting national and regional education, skills and employment goals for individuals and employers. We are able to support any potential partner through our national expertise, knowledge and reach by providing a high quality service.
